

Information Sheet

Agency/Sector	Educational Psychology Service
Contact details	Mr Steve Mulligan Principal Educational Psychologist Norfolk House, Walker Place, Rotherham S65 1AS 01709 822579 steve.mulligan@rotherham.gov.uk
Outline of Service Provided	The aim of the service is to remove barriers to achievement and inclusion. The service focuses on; partnership working, emotional wellbeing, thinking and learning and vulnerable children and schools. The service works with people to; make sense of their concerns, take effective action which adds value, monitor and evaluate interventions and share good practice.
Access	Agreement for an Educational Psychologist to become directly involved will come through initial discussion / consultation and will usually involve the relevant educational setting. At this point written background information (CAF, referral form or other) will be helpful. Parents / carers and professionals are very welcome to contact the Educational Psychology Service for initial discussion / consultation.
Restrictions on work carried out e.g. age group/funding/geographical area	Age range 0 - 19 years Priority is given to the most severe and complex difficulties and the most vulnerable groups of children.
Updated	October 2010